

Pamela Phillips

Program Coordinator in the Office of Public Health Practice
The University of Texas Health Science Center at Houston
Pamela.D.Phillips@uth.tmc.edu

Ms. Pamela Phillips is program coordinator for the UTHealth Office of Public Health Practice. She has over three years of experience organizing both online and in-person training events for UTHealth School of Public Health. In addition to managing the logistical requirements of our training courses, Ms. Phillips assists with editing and reproducing course materials and developing marketing materials for our programs. Ms. Phillips holds a bachelor of arts degree in anthropology.